

CAREER INSIDERS

We're on Our Way

It's that time of year again. We're well on our way into 2014 already and I feel like 2013 went by in a blur. But thanks to you, our clients and friends, it was a very successful year for Career Insiders, and our success is measured by that of our clients.

I always say that one reason for this success is that it seems that the professionals who hire us are really good at what they do. They have an excellent product to sell (themselves) and our job is to help them sell it. We measure our success as the percentage of clients who landed new jobs after working with us.

In looking at which of our clients were most successful, I found that these three service packages proved to be the most effective:

- => Get a Job / Comprehensive-90 days - 100%
- => Ace the Interview - 71%
- => Get a Job / Fundamentals Plus - 63%

Please take a look at the menu of services on our web site. I am always happy to discuss your particular situation and how we can be most effective in your search.

Thank you all for your business, referrals and support in the past and may we all have a healthy, prosperous and happy 2014!

Partnerships (Google and others)

Career Insiders is developing partnerships with other organizations:

RiseSmart, a next-generation outplacement solutions and career transition service - Delivered my webinar Job Search Etiquette to about 65 RiseSmart clients all over the US and Canada. I received several very positive emails directly, and RiseSmart's post-presentation survey yielded excellent feedback. 2/3 of the attendees responded to the survey and 98% (all but 1) rated it very helpful or somewhat helpful.

Evisors, an international MBA career service - Ongoing professional advisor, delivered my Ace the Interview webinar, and was selected to participate in the pilot program of an Evisors/Google partnership involving Google's Helpouts, attaining and conducting their first client consultation (including video).

HAN SF, Haas School of Business Alumni Network - As a board member, I organized a 4-program career series including networking, LinkedIn, interviewing, and developing a job search marketing plan.
